MINOLTA MIRROR 1989 CONTENTS

"Exploring South America", a major 20-page color presentation of truly exceptional images from 30 years' shooting there by U.S. pro Loren McIntyre, with the absorbing story of this distinguished trailblazer

Vivid camera abstracts by Nancy Van Arsdale, New Jersey freelancer, showing and telling how she uses everyday ingredients to make these colorful, fascinating patterns that you may want to try yourself

"Lost Paradise", a 14-page series of mysterious, enchanting monochromes by Ken'ichirō Noguchi of Japan; reproduced in laser-scanned duotone, plus his tragic life story

Voluptuous and distinctive color portraits of "African Ladies" by Uwe Ommer of West Germany, accompanied by excerpts from lyric poems of Leopold Senghor, first president of Senegal

Unusual, dynamic "feature-scoop" photojournalism in color of Israel's antiterrorism squads in Central America by U.S. pro Jeff Rotman

"Artist in India", appealing watercolor paintings by David Rankin of Cleveland, Ohio, specially reproduced, plus how he does them based on Minolta photos shot on the vast, exotic Subcontinent

Peak action and humorous sidelights in sports around his native Slovakia by Czech amateur Peter Haruštiak

Singular color imaging by Germán del Caso of Spain, "Strolling with the Light"

"Your Images of the Stars", 16 smash pages in color and monochrome by Martha Swope, reigning U.S. photo queen of Broadway and the N.Y. dance

Plus a feature selection of photographs from exotic, reshaping Singapore; a Special Section where experts tell about taking standout pictures; the international Minolta Gallery of reader photos, and more
